

Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America, will sponsor the showing of the play, "Hansel and Gretel" as their winter ways and means project, states Grand Regent, Mrs. Richard Wurm, Jr. The complete production of the children's classic fairy tale will be presented by the Hampton Players at matinees on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 8 and 9, at 1 p.m., at 100 Wall St., Redondo.

The public is invited to attend and reservations are encouraged, although a few tickets for each performance are available at the door. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Henry Kirst or Mrs. Paul Hogan.

Lomita OES Will Begin New Year

Edith Jackman, worthy matron, and Marion Jackman, worthy patron, will preside at the first meeting of the 1963 season of the Lomita Eastern Star tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple in Lomita.

Dorothy Faulker and Jack Graham, past matron and patron, will be hosts for the evening.

Special escort will be provided Helen Andrews, junior past matron, and Ernest Hansen, junior past patron.

Sarah Crooks, deputy grand matron of the 80th district, and past matron of Carnation chapter, will give special instructions. The hosts will form an honor guard for the new officers after the candlelight service.

Anna Long, chairman, and her committee will serve refreshments in the dining room.

Mr., Mrs. D. Doukoullos To Make Home in Greece

Mr. and Mrs. Demetrios Doukoullos, who were married in an evening ceremony at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend, Nov. 24, are enroute to Athens, Greece, their future home. Mrs. Doukoullos is the former Shirley Jean Terry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Terry, 23701 S. Western Ave., Torrance. Mr. T. Doukoullos of Athens is the father of the bridegroom.

For her wedding, the bride wore a sapphire blue knit suit with matching shoes and gloves. Her small white hat had a short veil. Completing her bridal attire was a bouquet of white orchids and garnet roses which she carried atop a white Bible. Mr.

Terry escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Patricia L. Kerner, wearing a beige brocade dress and carrying a bouquet of yellow carnations and roses, was the matron of honor.

R. L. Barnard stood as best man and the Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The newlyweds were greeted by the 120 wedding guests at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Marilyn Halverson registered the guests.

The new Mrs. Doukoullos was graduated from Narbonne High School. Her husband is a student at the University of Greece in Athens.
